Kathryn A. Kopp

Counsel

Overview

Kathryn A. Kopp's practice is focused on real estate, land use, landlord/tenant matters and commercial transactions. She has represented individuals and commercial clients in virtually all aspects of the acquisition and sale of real estate and business assets as well as the drafting and negotiation of leases.

Kathryn has assisted in obtaining variance approvals for individuals and businesses seeking to develop properties in a number of municipalities throughout New Jersey. She has also assisted clients in obtaining approvals of development projects from Historic Commissions in Somerset County, NJ.

Kathryn received her undergraduate degree from Saint Leo University and her law degree from New York Law School.
